

Dear Valued Ukrop's Customers,

Thank you for your support during the pandemic as our company has continued to nourish families throughout the RVA community and beyond. We are grateful.

While there are reasons to be optimistic now, the pandemic-related challenges to our business remain, including ingredient, packaging, transportation, and labor shortages. These issues are not unique to Ukrop's and are impacting nearly every business and all facets of our daily lives.

It's because of these unprecedented circumstances that we are writing to share the changes and adjustments that we are being compelled to make to our holiday meal offerings and pickup guidelines.

Holiday Sides, Rolls & Pie Package Added | Click Here to Order

For your convenience, we will be offering a "Holiday Sides, Rolls & Pie Package" containing our most popular Thanksgiving products.

Ham Dinners Added | Click Here to Order

We are pleased to share that we will be offering a Spiral Ham Dinner Package in addition to the á la carte Spiral Ham for Thanksgiving this year!

Fully Cooked Turkeys Not Available

Unfortunately, we just heard from our supplier that the order we placed months ago will not be fulfilled. We immediately began looking for turkeys elsewhere but have not been successful and will not be able to offer a turkey meal or a la carte turkey this year. We are disappointed, too. Increased demand for fully cooked and smaller turkeys has resulted in a shortage that will be felt across the country.

Please know the decisions we made are in an effort to serve as many of our food fans as possible, while ensuring that we are able to provide the level of customer service that you have come to expect from us and that which we strive to deliver.

Even with these adjustments, we may still experience unexpected ingredient and packaging issues. The best chance of avoiding disappointment is to order early.

Thanksgiving and Christmas are among our most favorite times of the year. We are committed to doing everything we can to ensure as many of our products as possible are available for you and your family to enjoy during the upcoming holidays.

Thank you for your loyalty; it's always a pleasure to serve you!
